PENINSULA PLAYERS 2009 PLAYBILL

THE LADY WITH ALL THE ANSWERS

June 16 – July 5

No topic was taboo for Ann Landers, the “Mistress of Manners.” If one needed blunt advice, they wrote to Ann. But to whom can Ann turn when life hands her lemons? Peek into her relationship with her husband and twin sister, better known as Dear Abby.

A DAY IN HOLLYWOOD/ A NIGHT IN THE UKRAINE

July 8 – July 26

This Tony Award-winning musical comedy is a double feature. First, a musical tribute from the ushers at Grauman’s Chinese Theatre who imagine themselves upon the silver screen, and then we are off to a Russian mansion and a fast-paced comedy à la the Marx Brothers, including tap dancing and rubber chickens!

IS HE DEAD?

July 29 – August 16

Only dead painters achieve fame! Millet, a young painter, fakes his death in order to pay off his girlfriend’s debts. Millet then puts on a dress and passes himself off as his own sister while figuring a way to come back to life, don trousers and marry Marie!

WAIT UNTIL DARK

August 19 – Sept. 6

A recently blinded woman unwittingly harbors a perilous prize that is highly sought after by a sinister, yet charming man who smooth-talks his way into her home. Susy struggles to outwit those who have pulled her into a deadly game of cat and mouse. Reminiscent of Hitchcock, suspense master Frederick Knott (Dial “M” for Murder) provides a meticulously crafted thrill-ride.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS

September 9 – October 18

Hold onto your seats for the original amazing race, 1872 style! Take a whirlwind spin around the globe in a comic family-friendly adventure filled with raging typhoons, runaway trains, stampeding elephants and a misguided detective as the fearless adventurer Phileas Fogg who races to save the fortune he wagered.
