

*Where the Sun Sets, the Curtain Rises and the Stars Shine
Discover the theatrical treasure nestled in a cedar forest, along the shores of Green Bay that is America's Oldest Professional Resident Summer Theatre*

Thank you for booking tickets with Peninsula Players.

Peninsula Players is located in between the towns of Egg Harbor and Fish Creek just west of state Highway 42 in Door County, Wisconsin.

Performances are held rain or shine in an all-weather pavilion along the Door County shore. Mother Nature is our lobby, the Restrooms, Luna Bar and Concession Stand are outside. We encourage patrons to dress for personal comfort and for the outdoor temperature as some folks run cooler than others. The pavilion's in-floor radiant heat is turned on in the fall. The sides are closed in the fall, but doors must open to let patrons in and out to the restrooms.

Patrons may stroll paths along the cedar-lined forest, visit the theatre's outdoor beer garden, and in the summer months, watch a sunset over the shores of Green Bay before settling into their seats for the latest Players fare presented by the superb talent of our nationally recognized company of actors.

The Luna Bar in the beer garden is open 90 minutes before the show featuring a mix of bottled beer, wines and mixed drinks. The canteen features a wide array of snacks including an artesian cheese platter, chips, cookies, soda, bottled water, coffee and more.

Wisconsin state statute prohibits carry-ins.

Featuring Neil Friedman as Vince Lombardi in the Peninsula Players production of Lombardi.

Curtain Times:

Tues.—Sun. at 7 p.m.
*Except Sun. Sept. 16, 23 and Oct. 14 at 4 p.m.
No performances on Monday.

Patrons may bring a picnic dinner to enjoy in the beer garden.

We suggest arriving at least 45 minutes prior to the show for parking.

Lombardi has a running time of 90-minutes. The Luna Bar, concession stand and will-call open 90-minutes before the show. There will be a pre-show bonfire, weather permitting, each evening. Join us early and relax by the fire before settling in for a night with Coach.
