PRODUCTION INTERNSHIPS

INTERNSHIPS - Peninsula Players of Door County/ Fish Creek, WI, America's oldest professional resident summer theatre, seeks candidates for its internship program for the 82nd summer season. Peninsula Players seeks those looking for a well-rounded experience in production. All interns rotate in both technical and administrative areas as the build of each show in our five-show season begins production. Example, show 1 opens June 13, June 14 begins rehearsal for show 2 and daily work assignments will shift but evening and running crew assignments don't shift until show 2 is on stage. Five of the eight interns will have an opportunity to ASM with an Equity stage manager. Small, Non-Equity roles may be cast from intern pool. No acting roles guaranteed. All interns will rotate into the scene shop as one of their rotations as well as other production assignments, so please complete the choice list 1 through 9 on the application form.

Approved AEA Membership Candidate Program. Acting roles not guaranteed. College credit may be arranged. Weekly stipend paid, free room/ board provided on the theater's 16-acres of forested lakeshore frontage. Transportation assistance provided. Company report date is May 22 through Labor Day/open of fall show Sept. 6. Some are hired on into the fall season through Oct. 18, 2017.
